INVITATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE PAINTING AND POSTER MAKING
CONTESTS FOR THE WORLD DAY AGAINST CHILD LABOR (WDACL) CELEBRATION

1. The Schools Division Office of Benguet hereby endorses the conduct of the Poster-Making Contest for the Elementary Category on June 12, 2026, as part of the celebration of the World Day Against Child Labor (WDACL) spearheaded by the Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE).
2. The annual celebration of WDACL aims to raise awareness on the protection of children's rights and the prevention and elimination of child labor. As part of this year's celebration, a poster-making contest will be conducted to provide learners an avenue to creatively express their support and advocacy for children's rights through visual arts.
3. In this regard, schools are encouraged to identify and endorse prospective participants who may represent their respective schools in the said activity. Participation shall be subject to existing DepEd policies and school regulations.
4. The activity specifically aims to:
  - a. Promote awareness of children's rights and welfare;
  - b. Encourage learners to advocate against child labor through creative expression; and
  - c. Showcase students' artistic talents while fostering social responsibility and civic consciousness.
5. For information, guidance, and appropriate action.
